

Dr. Bhupendra Bahadur Singh

Dr. Bhupendra Bahadur Singh, Assistant Professor of Sociology and Academic In-Charge (FJS) of the University has graduated and post-graduated in Hindi Literature from the Allahabad (Central) University. He is also post-graduated in Sociology from Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar (Central) University, Lucknow and awarded gold medal by Prof. U. N. Rao (Ex- Chairman, ISRO) in the presence of Prof. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam (Ex. President of India). He has awarded Ph. D. from Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National University, Lucknow. He has qualified UGC Net in Sociology. His areas of specialization are Indian Sociology, Sociology of Politics, Rural and Urban Studies and Democratic Decentralization. His published works include one Book, more than five Research Papers, several book reviews and articles. He has worked on two important Projects as Research Associate on the issues of ‘Democratic Decentralization and Gender’, ‘Legal Impact Assessment’ and ‘Environment and Social Impact Assessment’ funded by ICSSR, New Delhi and Higher Education Department, Government of Uttar Pradesh. He is life member of Indian Sociological Society, Research Committee (RC-7) in Indian Sociological Society, New Delhi, India and Ethnographic and Folk Culture Society (EFCS), Lucknow. He has presented many research papers in the different National and International Seminars, Conferences and Symposiums and chaired the sessions as well.