

The Job of Production Managers

- Oversee the work of people and machinery to convert inputs (materials and resources) into finished goods and services.

PRODUCTION MANAGEMENT TASKS

Planning the Production Process

- Choose what goods or services to offer customers.
- Convert original product ideas into final specifications.
- Design the most efficient facilities to produce those products.

Process Layout

- Process layout groups machinery and equipment according to their functions.
- Facilitates production of a variety of nonstandard items in relatively small batches.

