LECTURE 1: Rules of Partition

Position Of Minor Coparcener

Under Hindu Law both minor and major coparcener have same rights and both are entitled for partition. Guardian can file a suit on behalf of minor, and if any unfair partition takes place partition can be reopened.

Absent Coparcener

If any coparcener is absent at the time of partition his/her share should be kept separate. If his/her share is not kept separate then he/she can reopen the partition.

Alienee

A purchaser of coparceners interest in a sale has a right to demand partition as he steps into the shoes of the coparcener.

Partial Partition

Partition is called partial as to the property when the joint family have more than one property, and one of the property is to be divided this type of partition is known as partial partition as to property.

Partition is called partial as to person when only one person in the family wants to separate from the others, this is partial partition as to persons.
