LECTURE 1: Ceremonies of Adoption

Under the Hindu law of adoption, only a Hindu can adopt a child if he/she abides by the essentials prescribed in Section 6 of the act:

- The adoptive parent/s have the capacity and rights to adopt;
- The person/s giving up the child for adoption has the capacity to do so;
- The person being adopted has the capacity to be taken in adoption;
- The adoption is made in compliance with the act.

Only upon meeting these requirements shall adoption be valid.
