LAW STUDENTS' SOCIETY

FACULTY OF JURIDICAL SCIENCES

STUDENT CLUBS

The learning of law stretches much beyond the syllabi of the law as taught in the classroom. It is to cater to this need of the students to learn the subject in depth and in the broader sense, that the FJS has initiated the idea of Law Societies/Clubs. These Societies/Clubs provide a platform for the students interested in learning beyond the syllabi. The Clubs have been initiated to facilitate creativity, awareness, and interest in current issues in various legal fields. They are primarily managed by the students with the guidance of faculty members. These are following clubs:

- 1. MANTHAN CLUB – The debating society
- 2. FREE LEGAL AID CLUB
- 3. AAWAZ- Voice of Rama University (Cultural Society)
- 4. MOOT COURT SOCIETY
- 5. HAPPINESS SOCIETY
- 6. SPORTS SOCIETY

MANTHAN CLUB – The debating society

I do not agree with what you have to say, but I'll defend to the death your right to say it.- Evelyn Beatrice Hall

The foundations of modern democratic society are built on the principles of debate and discussion. Founded in 2024, Manthan- the Debating society of FJS, RAMA UNIVERSITY strives to inculcate the art of public speaking among students as an important contribution to the civic and political life of the nation. . The very term- “Manthan”- means effective thought, reflection and deliberations on important topics.
