

Program Educational Objectives

At Rama University various programs at Faculty of Agricultural Sciences and Allied Industries will prepare its graduates to:

PEO 1

To adopt profession of agriculture as progressive farmers, entrepreneurs, lab technicians, agriculture field officers, Agri business managers and consultants with prominent companies and organizations in diverse areas that include agriculture and allied industries viz. food and fiber processing, renewable energy production, environmental conservation and soil and water quality technicians, indoor environmental control, or other related fields.

PEO 2

To pursue higher education and research at major research universities in agricultural sciences and related fields.

PEO 3

Advancing in their chosen fields to supervisory and management positions.

PEO 4

To engage in continued learning through professional development.

PEO 5

Motivation to participate in and contribute to professional societies and community services.