

Program Specific Outcomes (PSO)

PSO 1: Graduate shall have the ability to apply fundamental knowledge of Prosthetic dentistry to solve problems in Dentistry.

PSO 2: Graduate shall have the ability to integrate Prosthetics knowledge and concepts with the ethical perspectives of Prosthetics and life sciences.

PSO 3: Graduate shall have the ability to work in groups or individually to develop written and oral presentations skills for effective communication of scientific concepts. Students are expected to engage in independent and lifelong learning in the context of Prosthodontics advancements.

PSO 4: Graduate shall have the ability to apply major quantitative and computational skills and tools to solve problems in Dentistry.