

PRECLINICAL LABORATORY EXERCISES

Mandatory for all the students including post graduate students. The faculty will give the histopathological demonstrations to both undergraduates and postgraduate students. Following the demonstration the students maintain their practical records under the supervision of MDS faculty.

The post graduate students have to make wax blocks carving of all the permanent 32 teeth they also have to make 15 ground section of carious and non carious tooth they have to do grossing, processing of tissues and staining of slides using routine stains and also special stains.