

Innovations in teaching and learning

- Faculty of Nursing is fully equipped to provide comprehensive healthcare services upholding high standard of moral conduct through discipline and an established code of conduct. Faculty of Nursing believes in providing quality education with global standards to enable the students of nursing to extend care with courtesy, compassion and competence to the suffering humanity. We uphold the finest educational principles enforced by scientific and technological advances. Well Equipped state of art classroom learning & computing facilities are available. we are flurished with lease line connectivity facilitating online accessing and sharing of digital resources including online databases and e-content.
- Institution with excellent infrastructure with super speciality parent hospital attached with medical college.
- Well qualified teaching faculty.
- Well equipped Lecture halls and laboratories.
- Well stocked and spacious library with internet facilities
- Mentorship facilities for students
- Personality and leadership development training
- Provision for research activities
- Skilled training program for graduates.