Sir,

Legal Education Committee at its meeting held on 19th July, 2015 considered the above mentioned subject. After consideration, Committee made the following recommendations: -

The Legal Education Committee considered the inspection report of the Faculty of Juridical Sciences, Rama University, Kanpur Nagar, Uttar Pradesh and further, Committee is of the view that as per Section 7 (1) (i) of the Advocates Act, 1961 University be granted recognition for the purpose of conferring the degree of law for imparting three year and five year law courses and also granted temporary approval of affiliation to its Faculty of Juridical Sciences, Rama University, Kanpur Nagar, Uttar Pradesh for running three year LLB course with an intake of two sections of 60 students in each section, five year BA LLB course with an intake of one section of 60 students and five year BBA LLB course with an intake of one section of 60 students for a period of two years i.e. for the academic years 2015-2016 and 2016-2017 subject to the following conditions: -

1. The college management is directed to establish the Legal Aid Centre as per Clause-11, Schedule-III of Rule-11 of the Part-IV of the Legal Education Rules - 2008.
2. College should ensure the payment of salary to teachers as per Rules 22 schedule III, Part IV of BCI Rules.
3. The institution is directed to upgrade the library by investing minimum Rs. 50,000/- per year per stream.
4. Teacher Student ratio shall be as per Schedule-III, Rule-11, Clause-17, Part-IV of Bar Council of India Rules.

Further, the university should follow the attendance rule and file reply that they are going to follow the aforesaid rule. The next inspection team must see whether the said rule is being followed by the university or not. The relevant Rule 12 is given below: -

"12. End Semester Test: No student of any of the degree program shall be allowed to take the end semester test in a subject if the student concerned has not attended minimum of 70% of the classes held in the subject concerned as also the moot court room exercises, tutorials and practical training conducted in the subject taken together.

Provided that if a student for any exceptional reasons fail to attend 70% of the classes held in any subject, the Dean of the University or the Principal of the Centre of Legal Education, as the case may be, may allow the student to take the test if the student concerned attended at least 65% of the classes held in the subject concerned and attended 70% of classes in all the subjects taken together. The similar power shall rest with the Vice Chancellor or Director of a National Law University, or his authorized representative in the absence of the Dean of Law.

Provided further that a list of such students allowed to take the test with reasons recorded be forwarded to the Bar Council of India."

Institution should submit affidavit in compliance to the above conditions within six weeks.

The college shall also comply with the following Rule of the Bar Council of India (Clause (iii) and Explanation 2 of Schedule IV in Part IV of new rules of the Bar Council of India): -

"Whenever approval of affiliation is granted to the Centres of Legal Education, it shall be necessary for the Centres of Legal Education to deposit Rupees Five Lakh in shape of guarantee to fulfil all the norms of the Bar Council of India. The same shall be liable to be forfeited if norms are not complied with and same shall carry no interest."

The approval now granted by the Bar Council of India is subject to the payment of guarantee amount as mentioned in the above rule.

College authorities are also required to apply to the Bar Council of India for further extension of approval six months in advance before expiry of the period of approval of affiliation granted by the Bar Council of India i.e. on or before 31st December, 2016 in respect of three year LLB, five year BA LLB and five year BBA LLB law courses.

The above recommendations were considered by the Bar Council of India at its meeting held on 25th July, 2015 and accepted the same.

This is for your information and necessary action.

Yours Sincerely,

(Ashok K. Pandey)
Joint Secretary
